

New Education Committee Members Bio Information

Thanks for volunteering to serve St. Sebastian School!

Anne Novotny

I gratefully look forward to being able to serve the St. Sebastian School/Parish as a member of your Education Committee. My family and I joined the parish in 2011. The history of my family and St. Sebastian's dates back a bit further, however. My father, Thomas, a 1956 graduate, and his four sisters are all St. Sebastian alumni. I am the very blessed mom of ten terrific children: Tim-29, Merrell-25, Christopher-23, Talisha-19, Maya-14 (a student at St. Coletta, our school within a school here at St. Sebastian), Sarah-13 (St. Coletta), Megan-12 (a 7th grader at St. Sebastian), Darius-12 (St. Coletta), Abby-8 (St. Coletta) and Tommy-7 (a first grader at St. Sebastian). The amazing diversity of St. Sebastian's was a huge factor in the decision to become members, enhanced by the acceptance and eagerness of the community to welcome my family. The stellar academic record of the school compliments the emphasis of developing strong Catholic individuals, both of which are very important to me. As a social worker for almost 30 years, I now train foster and adoptive parents. I am committed to serving St. Sebastian's and its students and look forward to working with those who are already moving our school forward.

Cynthia Schoonover

Thank you for the opportunity to serve on the St. Sebastian School Education Committee. After touring and researching many schools in the Milwaukee area last year, my husband, Robert Schoonover, and I chose St. Sebastian as the school in which to raise our daughters. As Denali's K5 year comes to an end, we couldn't be happier with our decision. As an educator myself, providing my girls with a strong academic foundation is extremely important to me. I have worked in Milwaukee Public Schools for the past seven years, starting as a high school math teacher and now working as an Instructional Coach. Over the past six years I have completed two graduate programs, the first was a Masters in Teaching and Learning and the second was a Masters in Educational Leadership. I have a passion for curriculum and instruction and seeing students succeed academically; it is because of this passion that I happily accepted my nomination to become a member of St. Sebastian's Education Committee. I hope to share my knowledge and work together to prepare all students at St. Sebastian's to be successful in High School and in life after graduation.
