Dear Friends,

Board of Directors:

Mark Berquist
President

The 86 men at the Guest House of Milwaukee sincerely thank you for your recent donation of $352. Your gift shows that you understand just how important it is to provide not only the basic needs for our guests, but also our dignity-restoring programs and services to make sure we can transform the lives of Milwaukee's homeless.

Let me tell you what your gift helps provide:

Patrick Dunphy
Vice President

- Over 400 hot meals and 35,000 sandwiches in our shelter every year
- An employment program with multiple job training programs
- Our mental health and substance abuse counseling clinic
- Over 300 units of permanent housing to help formerly homeless men, women and families maintain their housing so they never have to experience homelessness again

Judeen Schulte
Secretary

With your impactful gift, we are able to succeed in having:

Gail Buenger
Treasurer

- 85% of residents leave the Guest House with sustainable income
- 66% of residents leave the Guest House with sustained sobriety
- 95% of permanent housing residents maintain their housing
- 10 job placements per month on average with our employment program

Andy Anderson

These successes are yours, and they are just the beginning. Stay up-to-date with the Guest House by visiting our website at www.guesthouseofmilwaukee.org, or you can call us to learn more or set up a tour anytime at 414-316-2025.
